The Economic Development Director shall be the administrative officer of the Economic Development District. She/he shall be responsible to carry out the directives of the Board of Directors in the performance of her/his duties. Among her/his duties she/he will prepare, under the direct supervision of the Board of Directors, a Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy for the District, including the annual report.

The Director shall maintain cooperation and coordination of Economic Development Activities with other resource development agents, institutions, organized groups, and agencies.

The Director shall assist development groups in the District to make application for Federal, State, or other funding assistance.

The Director shall be responsible to provide the Board of Directors with information for making decisions. It is the express responsibility of the Board of Directors to decide what goals and projects to pursue, not the employed staff.
The Director is responsible for the day-to-day formulation and implementation of the District Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS).

The Director will complete and analyze the statistical tables and write the CEDS Report, incorporating the decisions of the Board of Directors.

The Director shall be responsible for evaluating the progress of development programs. Results must be measured as precisely as possible and communicated to the Board of Directors and to EDA.

The responsibility of the Economic Development Director is to provide comprehensive, project-oriented planning for the entire District and must constantly seek and encourage new projects and develop funding possibilities from whatever source obtainable.

In accordance with UBAOG policy the Director will also be responsible for the hiring and managing of other staff persons as deemed necessary by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII: DISSOLUTION CLAUSE

Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government for a public purpose.

ARTICLE IX: FISCAL YEAR

The first fiscal year of the Corporations shall begin as of the date of the issuance of the Charter by the Secretary of State of Utah (June 11, 1976) and ending December 31, 1976; and thereafter the fiscal year of the Corporation shall consistently follow the State of Utah's fiscal year, which is July 1 to June 30.

ARTICLE X: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Members of the Board shall abstain from voting or otherwise being involved in the decision-making process when it might be interpreted that they could economically, politically, or personally benefit from such action. This same individual shall not be restricted from answering questions or otherwise participating in providing information pertinent to the decision making process of others.

ARTICLE XI: ADOPTION AND AMENDMENTS OF THESE BY-LAWS

Section 1: Vote Required for Passage
